

Three student speakers start a new trend at Wayzata Commencements. Paula England expresses the hopes of her class.

Diplomas in hand, joyful Seniors rush toward freedom.

Corrine Arneson, one of the 280 who made it on June 8th, receives her diploma from Board Chairman, Arthur Bauer.

Mr. Hoff struggles to regain the firm hold he once had on his students.