Tennis Team Builds for the Future

"See, right through him!" says Dave Holst, still up in the air over his smash as Jerry Lopez looks on.

The tennis team was the youngest in years. Ron Sternal was the only returning letterman. Max Hahn also starred on the squad. Coach Zigneigo recruited several boys from the junior high, Andy Mitchell, Keith Sternal, and Mark Hoopenbecker, to help the team.

Agonizingly, the team didn't win a match. So 1967 was a building year; a time to gain experience. By this growing it is hoped Wayzata will have a tough tennis team in the future.
