

Introduction

Since we were the first class to go completely through Saint Bartholomew's from first grade to eighth, we present you with our school history. We will tell you of the happenings of the years and our devout vocation to get into the most mischief.

Getting Used to It

When we entered the first grade, we came in our full dress uniforms to be greeted by the smiling face of Sister Joseph Marie. A small, slender sort of person was she, usually with a smile. In this year, with 33 others, we accomplished many things.

Our year was concluded with a school picnic at Lake Independence.

Now, with the knowledge of the first grade, we travelled on to the second grade in hopes of gaining more.

A Successful Year

In second grade, being used to the school, most of us returned. The good friends that left us were: Charles Dabrowski, Richard Engelhart, Connie LaMere, Annette LaPointe, Marguerite Mather, and Ruth Ann Rasmussen. At her desk sat Sister M. Janice, a short person with a rather strict personality. In this year we met more friends who were: Dick Berg, John Foty, Jim Gildner, Alicia Hughes, Patty Leighton, David Licht, Lynne Ryan, Jenny Stein and Joe Wilson.

During the year, we had some of the happiest moments of our lives - the days we made our First Holy Communion and received the Sacrament of Penance.

With the needed knowledge of the second grade, we passed on to the third grade.
